CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF OF STAFF, U. S. AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Commendation - [REDACTED]

STAT

1. I wish to commend [REDACTED] for the outstanding services performed by him while assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

2. During the period March 1953 to September 1955, [REDACTED] distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service to the United States. While on duty in a highly important field assignment in a strategic Near Eastern area, this officer was required to plan, organize and direct highly complex and sensitive foreign intelligence operations. These vital operations were conducted with the greatest effectiveness and discretion. They successfully implemented high-level U. S. Government policy objectives established by the National Security Council.

3. This assignment has given additional proof of [REDACTED] outstanding abilities and his exceptional growth potential. His fitness is evidenced by his effectiveness, skill in leadership, superior judgment, and the significance of assignments he has been called upon to perform. Typical of his ability and initiative is the fact that he has, on his own time, just completed an important book in the field of political science, which will be published this year.
